

KEEWAYDIN IN THE COMMUNITY

*Greater Minneapolis
Chamber of Commerce*

Keewaydin worked with the Greater Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce (GMCC) to renegotiate their lease in the historic Young Quinlan Building. However, negotiating a lease was just the beginning. Based on the Keewaydin article "Coming, A Dramatic Change in Office Space", GMCC president Shelly Regan placed a call to Peter Kitchak. Keewaydin quickly jumped on board to help GMCC develop a plan to create a new, more energetic and productive office. Keewaydin pulled together an all star non-profit consulting team which included leaders in the fields of technology and interior design.
